

Chapter 10, pt 3 Questions China

1. What changes in the party leadership occurred because of the Tiananmen Square protests?
2. What happened on June 3 and 4?
3. What happened to most of the movement's leaders?
4. What does the CCP regard as its most serious challenge?
5. How is it described?
6. Who especially supports it?
7. What would the CCP do about it in July 1999?
8. What happened to its founder?
9. What happened to many of its members?
10. Why is the CCP so concerned about this group and others?
11. When was the most recent Chinese constitution adopted?
12. What institution is still all-powerful?
13. How many members does it have?
14. Why has the CCP having difficulty recruiting new members?
15. Who is now allowed to join?
16. In what ways are the CCP and the old CPSU similar?
17. How is the Politburo described?
18. Who is responsible for its day to day work?
19. Who apparently had the last word in deciding to force the students out of Tiananmen Square?
20. What is the conventional wisdom about Hu Jintao's leadership style?
21. Why was the Central Advisory Commission important in the 1980s?
22. What are the alarming signs about the CCP today?
23. What is an accepted part of doing business in China today?
24. What traditional role has the PLA played in modern China?
25. Where did it come down during the Democracy Movement protests?
26. Why does it have a vested interest in economic reform?

27. What is Hu's technical and professional background?
28. What two factors led to the floodgates that destroyed the USSR?
29. What foreign policy did Mao pursue?
30. What three principles guided economic reform after Mao's death?
31. What agricultural reforms occurred during the 1980s?
32. How do the private firms compare to the state owned enterprises?
33. What was created in 1979?
34. Why?
35. Who accounts for about 10% of foreign investment?
36. Why is this surprising?
37. What is the unofficial urban unemployment rate?
38. Where is 4/5 of foreign investment located?
39. What is happening to income distribution?
40. What are the guanxi?
41. How much is China's population growing each year?
42. How does a typical Chinese worker compare to one in India and Taiwan?
43. What happened to raise tensions between the USA and China in 2001?
44. What international movement did China help establish?
45. What was China the first third world country to do?
46. What almost happened in 1958?
47. What happened in 1969?
48. Why was Chinese foreign policy autarkic during Mao's time?
49. What changed in 1972?
50. What will happen in 2008?
51. What are two illegal fads that many affluent Chinese are purchasing anyway?
52. Who is enjoying a rebirth in a cult of personality in today's China?